Foreword

It has been rightly said: "Books are the carriers of civilization. Without books, history is silent, literature dumb, science crippled, thought and speculation at a standstill." What better and lasting testimony to mark the Sesquicentennial year of our beloved mother institution, the University of Madras, than the publication of 30 commemorative volumes!

It is an honour and a privilege to pen the Foreword to these volumes submitted by the Faculty of the University of Madras and the affiliated institutions. Keeping in mind that these issues are a lasting memento to the 150 year dedication of our Institution to excellence in Higher education and research, the books have been chosen based on their innovative approach, qualinty of research and skilful style.

Apart from marking an important landmark in the progress of our great institution, it is hoped, that these volumes will be a truly significant contribution to the academic ethos of our nation.

I thank the academic fraternity and our partners and collaborators for their cooperation and I congratulate the authors and all those who contributed to ensure that the commemorative volumes are released at the Valedictory of the Sesquicentennial celebrations of the University of Madras on October 9, 2007.

A lot of water has passed under the bridge since that wonderful day on September 5, 1857 when the University of Madras came into existence. It is heartening for all of us to think that the best is yet to be.

With warm regards and best wishes

भजगोविन्दस्तोत्र - भाज्यभागादिहोमविचार

PREFACE

The University of Madras is proud in presenting to the world of scholars, Volume Sixteen of the New Catalogus Catalogorum under the auspicious occasion of 150th year celebration of University of Madras. The staff of the Department of Sanskrit, following the footsteps of their predecessors and keeping up the sense of duty and responsibility they had in bringing out information regarding many unpublished works of our ancient languages such as Sanskrit, Pali and Prakrit, has now come out with this new volume.

This volume covers entries from Bhajagovinda to Bhājyabhāgādihomavicāra. Herein great authors like Bhaṭṭa Kamalākara, Bhaṭṭa Nārāyaṇa, Bhaṭṭa Bhāskara, Bhaṭṭi, Bhaṭṭojī Dīkṣita, Bhartṛhari, Bhavabhūti et al., and important works like Bhaviṣyad, Bhaviṣyottara and Bhāgavatapurāṇas occur.

Though we have generally adopted the method of working as in the previous volumes, a speciality of this volume is that we have added lot of references even under the title of the authors. Hence, this volume provides information about authors with titles of Bhaṭṭa, Bhaṭṭācārya and Bhaṭṭāraka facilitating in updating the information occurring in the earlier volumes under their respective names. Moreover, we have provided commentaries and super-commentaries under the main work apart from dividing them school-wise wherever applicable. Cross references are given in many cases for the convenience of the scholars.

We take this opportunity to thank the authorities of the University, especially our Vice-Chancellor, Professor S. Ramachandran, for taking up the publication of this volume and for its release during the Valedictory function of the 150th year Celebrations.

भविष्योत्तरपुराण The Bhaviṣya purāṇa consists of four parvans viz. Brāhma, Madhyama, Pratisarga and Uttara. Among these, the Uttara Parvan consists of two hundred and eight chapters and is a distinct Purāṇa in itself called the Bhaviṣyottara purāṇa. This Parvan forms a supplement to the Bhaviṣya Purāṇa. It deals with different religious rites, especially the vratas.

भागवत

-Saṃskṛtaveṇī. SB. New DC. XI. ii. 104995.

भागवत See also Ekanātha Bhāgavata, Jaimini-bhāgavata, Devībhāgavata, Bāla-bhāgavata, Bhagavatībhāgavata, Mahā-bhāgavata.

भागवत or Sāttvatasaṃhitā. One of the major 18 Purāṇas, most popular Purāṇa, divided into 12 Skandhas, of which 10th Sk. gives a detailed account of the birth and life history of Lord Kṛṣṇa.

For a discussion in the inter relationship, priority and Bhāgavata as original Mahāpurāṇa, see Durjanamukhacapeṭikā by Rāmacandrāśrama. In a verse in the beginning of Bhāgavata it is said that when devotion became extinct, it was the Bhāgavata in Tamilnadu that revived the Bhakti movement.

Ref. by Jinendrabuddhi (Nyāsa on Kāśikā 6-2-37) and Jagadīśa Tarkālaṅkāra (Patañjali refers to Bhagurī I.7-3-45, possibly a scholarly sister of Bhāguri).

A number of references to his works on Lexicography, Poetics, Brāhmaṇa exegesis, and Politics are found.

Lexicography:

His quotes are found in Amarakośa (Ṭīkāsarvasva and in Bhāṣāvṛtti. This work was prob. called Trikāṇḍa). He is quoted several times in Bṛhaddevatā; also by Lakṣmīdhara on Manusmṛtibhāṣya (8/198); and by Somadeva in Yaśastilakacampū as a writer on Rājanītiśāstra.

From quotations referring to him in grammatical treatises viz., Śabdaśaktiprakāśikā, it seems he was the a. of a Dhātupāṭha (गुणो वधेश्च निन्दायां etc.).
